"You visit the earth and water it, you greatly enrich it; the river of God is full of water..." ~ Psalm 65:9

Today's Queries: What does "living in right relationship with all creation" mean to me?
How do I contribute to helping others live in right relationship with all creation? What changes am I called to make to live in right relationship with all creation? What changes am I called to make in order to live more harmoniously?

"...in Christ we who are many form one body, and each member belongs to all the others."
~ Romans 12:5

Today's Queries: How are we as a diverse body of Friends called to "live in harmony"?
How are we as a Religious Society called to "live in right relationship with all creation"? How can I contribute personally to this vision of how we are called?

335th Annual Session of the Baltimore Yearly Meeting of the Religious Society of Friends

Lauri Perman, Presiding Clerk

Living in Harmony: With One Another and All Creation

"Friends, in the Power and Life of God dwell in unity one with another that...you may answer that of God in everyone. And keep down and low, that nothing may reign but Life among you.
Unto the Power of God be obedient...wherein wisdom is received." ~ George Fox, 1654

“The composer uses alternating dissonances and repeated resolutions to create complexity and richness.” ~ Douglas Miller, State College Friend

Today's Queries: What role does diversity play in my understanding of harmony? Do I believe that a more diverse Religious Society of Friends might also be a more harmonious Society? How has my perception of harmony within the Religious Society of Friends changed over the years? Are there “chords” that I once found jarring that are now pleasing to my ear?
