

WINDOWS AND MIRRORS

Reflections on the War in Afghanistan

Exhibit opens on March 1st in Washington, D.C.

American Friends
Service Committee

A collection of murals by U.S. and international artists and drawings by Afghan students in Kabul creates windows into the war in Afghanistan.

Please join us for the opening night reception on March 1st at the First Congregational United Church of Christ, featuring light refreshments and at 7 p.m., a discussion by several artists of why art can be a powerful means to convey the human cost of war.

For specific times and events, visit:
windowsandmirrors.org/exhibit

Co-sponsors:

American Friends Service Committee, Church of the Brethren, Friends Committee on National Legislation, Mennonite Central Committee US Washington Office, National Council of Churches, Pax Christi USA, SOJOURNERS, Split This Rock, United Church of Christ, United Methodist General Board of Church and Society

Exhibit venues

First Congregational United Church of Christ
945 G Street, NW
Open to the public March 1, 8, 15, 22
(Thursdays) from 5–8 p.m.
and Sunday, March 4 from 3–7 p.m.

Methodist Building
100 Maryland Avenue NE
Open to the public March 1–22
from 9 a.m. – 5 p.m.